ACCOMMODATION

The house was designed in typical early Australian architecture with a wide veranda skirted by a native garden. It was built in 1894 as a residency for the owners of the Crick & Co. General Store. Rustic in appearance, it has 4 bedrooms, 2 dining rooms, kitchen, breakfast room, pantry, bathroom (with large old style bath), and a flush toilet at the end of the garden path. Fully furnished, it also includes a t.v, video, stereos, phones & fax, large fridge/freezer, ceiling fans, open fire places. A washing machine is also available for use, however due to the drought, we do ask you keep it's use to a bare minimum.
